A CHOOD EXAMPLE.

A church was to have been dedicated at East chias, not long since. The building was crowden—a capital seremon was prached—and every ywas waiting for the ceremonies of the dedican, when the edicating priest quietly remarked, the building was unpaid to the control of the con hat lawing learned that the building was unpaid in by the congregation, she could not in conscience in by the congregation, she could not give from them to God related was not theirs to render. When the church expally belonged to them, he would with pleasure we he medium of presenting at to Heaven." A cooled example this, and worthy of being followed an all similar cases. The practice of building burches "on tick," in becoming diagnorefully common; and has an effect to prejiding the Church the eyes of that large class who are not connect. It will be a with any religious society. For all my neighbors tell me so.

Enough for to-day. We trust our read-iw satisfied that the Philadelphia advertises have arrived at Jassy, in Moldavia, and a corden-constitute was to be immediately established along the Austrian frontier. Two years ago this ter-tule plague made its appearance on the banks of the Indos. At the beginning of this year, it appear in the Caucasus, and spread devastation through the ranks of the Russian Army. Now it is ru-mored to have arrived at Jassy, and is certainly known to be ravaging the interior of Russia. It has appeared at Moreow, at Kie and at Smolenski. Poland is now in great feor, and Warsaw is taking processions to molify it it cannot prevent, the ra-vages of the destroyer.

Some love the gladsome Springtime. The season of birds and flowers. When leaves above and buds bence Laugh in the ringing showers.
Oh the earth is like a child then.
That knows nor care nor crime.
But give me the mellow Autumn.
When the year is in its prime.
